SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

SOURCE: German rightist politician (C). Appraisal of Content: 3.

1. H. R. Kremer¹ was arrested in mid-July 1957 at his residence in Berlin-Zehlendorf. The arrest was made on instructions from Berlin Senator for Internal Affairs Joachim Lipschitz, on the charge of having in 1953 aided the flight of Rademacher, a former employee of the Nazi Foreign Office. Kremer's house was searched and so was the printing plant Polyprint GmbH, Berlin-Kreuzberg, with which he is connected.
2. It was widely accepted in Berlin that the reason given for Kremer's arrest was fictitious and that the real reason was to lay hands on the manuscript of his brochure and document collection Sechs Millionen?, scheduled for publication at the beginning of September 1957. This brochure is concerned with the question of whether six million Jews were actually killed under the Third Reich; it is Kremer's contention that the number is greatly exaggerated.
1. Field Comment. A previous report from the same source, which discusses Kremer's publication plans for his brochure, gives the name as A. Kremer. See CS-3,326,669.
